

The Association of Contingency Planners

For immediate release: 01/25/2010

The Association of Contingency Planners Announces 43rd Chapter

The Association of Contingency Planners (ACP) announces the establishment of the Texas Panhandle Chapter. The formation of this chapter will provide robust programs consisting of professional development and networking opportunities for professionals with contingency planning responsibilities in and around the Amarillo area.

Local chapter organizers are already preparing to take part in a regional preparedness conference. Chapter president, Dave Stacy, states, "We are very excited to be a part of ACP and look forward to working closely with organizations across the Texas Panhandle to promote Business Continuity and Emergency Response planning."

The ACP Texas Panhandle Chapter invites organizations and those professionals involved in business continuity, disaster recovery and emergency management to attend any future meeting as a guest. Inquires about meeting schedules and membership may be directed to Texas Panhandle Chapter President, Dave Stacy at dstacy@wnl.com. For more information about ACP and continuity planning, please visit www.acp-international.com.

The Association of Contingency Planners (ACP) is a non-profit, international trade association dedicated to the advancement of business continuity professionals. ACP provides a powerful peer-to-peer networking and learning environment for its members through 43 chapters nationwide. At over 2,600 members, ACP is the largest, most established networking and information exchange organization in North America - serving business continuity professionals for over 25 years. Membership is open to anyone with an interest in or responsibility for the varied aspects of continuity planning.

MEDIA CONTACT

Michelle Cross

ACP Corporate Marketing and Public Relations Director

marketingpr@acp-international.com

###