ACP is Looking for a Few Good Actors!!!

- Linda Kennedy

The Austin Office of Emergency Management is looking for a few good volunteers -- well, actually, a number of good volunteers. A disaster drill is scheduled for Thursday, Oct. 17 and OEM, partnering with the University of Texas, needs to line up 300 volunteers to participate (additional information is attached). They've already recruited about 110, but need additional volunteers. The details of what is involved and where to report are attached. If you are interested in participating in an unusual and interesting day, here is your opportunity.

Thank You to those who have renewed their membership

Beverly Moore, UT Houston Health Science – 7th Year

This update is in accordance with the monthly reports sent from the ACP/National. If you are not listed and renewed in the month of April, I apologize for not having your name.
